Staff Spotlight

SYDNEY SUZANNE BELL

Nickname(s) you've been given & by whom: Syd & Syderella because I used to act like a princess when I was little.

My Hometown: Madison/Waunakee.

3 words to best describe me: Silly, happy & disciplined.

A favorite childhood memory is: Going to football games.

Favorite food/restaurant: I like all food especially dessert & burgers.

Favorite place to visit: The beach.

Family Members: My beautiful mama Mary Jo, hardworking dad Mike, role model older brother Quentin & best friend cousin Ali.

Favorite things about working here: Playing bingo.

Best advice you've been given: Don't settle.

Hobbies and interests I enjoy: Drinking coffee, playing with puppies, going for walks, watching the sunset.

My biggest pet peeve: Rude people & lack of manners.

Plans after retirement: Spoil my grandkids.

2 items on my buckets list: Graduate from college & watch all 200 of the best scary movies.

Sydney has been working with us at the Manor since she was in high school. She has taken on new roles here at the Manor, working with people as a caregiver and also with the Activity Department. You can still hear her cheerful voice at the Reception Desk where she started out in high school. Thanks for being so positive, ambitious and spirited, Sydney. Your laugh is contagious and we are blessed to have you with us!
